ABOUT THE LEAD SINGER

With over two decades of dedication to music, Hasin Warsi is a seasoned and versatile vocalist whose roots trace back to the prestigious Jaipur Gharana. Born into a lineage steeped in musical excellence, his passion was ignited by his maternal grandfather, Ustad Munshi Khan Sahab, a legendary sitar maestro, and his great-grandfather, a renowned santoor player and clarinetist. This early exposure to classical music laid the foundation for a lifelong journey in sound.

Hasin's initial foray into live performance began under the guidance of his father, with whom he performed in various orchestral live shows. He considers his father to be his first guru, whose mentorship provided vital practical experience and shaped his early understanding of stagecraft and live music.

He went on to receive formal training in classical music at Guru Amit Anupam Ji's music school and earned a Visharad degree from the Bhatkhande Board, Lucknow. In parallel, he enriched his repertoire by learning light music from the renowned tabla virtuoso Ustad Ghulam Mustafa Ji, and further diversified his skills under Ustad Bundu Khan Sahab, a celebrated maand and Rajasthani folk singer.

Hasin also received harmonium training from Ustad Suleman Khan Sahab and studied under Ustad Shaukat Khan Sahab of the Sikar Gharana. His time in Mumbai under the mentorship of his maternal uncle, the eminent santoor player Ustad Anwar Hussain (Neelu Ji), marked a significant phase in his musical evolution.

He has been blessed and encouraged by several legendary figures, including Pt. Hanuman Sahay Ji, Janab Abid Ali Ji, Shri Ram Sharma Ji, Shri Dolat Ji, and Shri Nagori Ji.
